WOODSON'S TRIUMPH

Elected Secretary of the National Democratic Convention.

Taggart, of Indiana, Chosen Chairman Without Opposition.

New York, July 26.—Thomas Taggart, of Indianapolis, was elected Chairman of the Democratic National Committee. The selection was unanimous.

The meeting had not been in session long before this action was taken. All efforts to induce Senator Gorman to take the place failed. Urey Woodson was elected Secretary of the committee. He is editor of two papers, a member of the committee of many years, and widely known throughout the entire country. He was chosen over Charles A. Walsh by a vote of thirty-six to twelve.

An effort was made to elect as assistant secretary, Edwin Sexton, of the District of Columbia, but after discussion the committee decided that Woodson should be free to choose his own assistants.

John I. Martin, of Missouri, was elected sergeant-at-arms, and Samuel Donelson, of Tennessee, elected assistant sergeant-at-arms.

HAGER CHAIRMAN.

State Central and Executive Committees Organize For Fight.

Frankfort, Ky., July 26.—The Democratic state central and executive committee elected Judge S. W. Hager, as chairman of the state campaign committee, with Ollie James, John B. Brasher, Henry B. Hines and John M. Lasing as the other members.

Percy Haly was made secretary of the state committee. The following four names are to be sent to the governor for his selection of a state election commissioner: June Gayle, of Owen; C. B. Poyntz, of Mason; Dr. John R. Collier, of Louisville; and Ben V. Smith, of Pulaski.

Resolutions congratulating the national democrats on the selections of Parker and Davis, and endorsing the St. Louis platform where adopted. In the matter of the Calloway county committee vacancies the secretary was directed to notify John Keys, the county chairman, to hold an election to fill the vacancies as provided by party law, a motion to appoint the county committeemen instead of electing them being withdrawn.

McQuown, Lasing and Vreeland were made a committee to edit and have printed the party rules.

Appointed Special Agent.

Mr. Howard M. Bollinger, of Pem broke, has been appointed special agent of the L. & N. railroad company. He assumed the duties on yesterday and was assigned work on this division.

grow, completely cures dandruff. And it always restores color to gray hair, all the rich, dark color of early life.

My hair was falling out badly and I was afraid I would lose it all. Then I used Ayer's Hair Vigor. It quickly stopped the falling and made my hair all grow thick and strong.

TIED FOR TALEND.

Hopkinsville Has Lost Fourth Place To Vincennes.

Two Straight Defeats To Begin The Series of Home Games.

The series of three game with Vincennes on the local diamond, was begun Tuesday and the visitors have won the first two games. Tuesday Alexander pitched for the locals, but was batted all over the field and five scores made in four innings. Pettifer was then put in and the visitors made only one score off him in five innings. A new man, W. H. Grady, of Trenton, was put in as catcher, as Collins is disabled with a broken finger. The latter part of the game was well played, but the locals were able to secure only 5 scores, although Marrs and Moore both made home runs. Whitley and Lemon were the Vincennes battery.

Wednesday's game was a still worse defeat. Bomar and Grady for Hopkinsville and Clayton and Lemon for Vincennes were the batteries. Errors in the first inning enabled Vincennes to make 3 scores and in the fourth they made four more scores. Hopkinsville made only 2 scores and Vincennes wound up with 8. The game was one-sided and uninteresting. The locals seemed to have no heart in the game after the bad start in the first inning. The surprising part was that the visitors made eleven hits off Bomar, who is one of the best pitchers in the league. The Vincennes team contains the champion hitter in the K. I. T., and the strength of the team is in its heavy hitting. The third game was played yesterday afternoon, too late for the result to be given in this issue.

Henderson Today.

Henderson came over from Clarksville for a series of games beginning today. The third game will be either a double-header Saturday, or a Sunday game at Henderson.

The Browns lost the last game of the series Monday, played at Clarksville with the Tennesseans, the score being 3 to 2. It was a ten-inning contest. Weakley, who was batted out of the box Saturday, pitched Monday's game and Hopkinsville only got four hits off him. The Browns, however, lost the game on errors.

On The Fly.

Paducah and Cairo are having it out in a series of seven games this week. Cairo took the first three.

Hopkinsville's late misfortunes have caused a slump from 459 to 413 and put one game behind Vincennes and tied Henderson for last place. We had a chance yesterday to recover our old place.

Vincennes has won 8 out of 9 of the last games played and moved up more than 100 points in the percentage column.

Zinkins is umpiring with satisfaction to both sides.

Shuster still holds on, although Cairo is the only team that wants him.

If President Irving Thompson wants to do the right thing by Paducah why doesn't he get rid of Shuster. This umpire is not tolerated in Hopkinsville because he gave the Hopkinsville the rotten end of his decisions. He should at least be suspended until charges of the Paducah management are investigated.—News-Democrat.

"Si" Pettifer came near winning his game Tuesday after it seemed hopelessly gone. He had hitched the whole game it would have been easy for the Browns.

LAWYERS DEFEAT DOCTORS

Umpire Reed flopped and hauled to Town in a Patrol Wagon.

Paducah, Ky., July 26.—A game of baseball between the doctors and lawyers yesterday afternoon resulted in a score of 19 to 12 in favor of the students of Blackstone. The game was for charity, it netted $1,000. The ridiculous playing kept the crowd in an uproar from the first inning to the sixth, when according to an understanding, Umpire W. M. Reed, circuit Judge was mobbed and hauled to town in the patrol wagon.

FIRE PROTECTION

Guaranteed By the Home Telephone Company.

New Alarm System Tested and Given The Exclusive Contract.

The Home Telephone Company announced itself ready with its fire alarm system Wednesday of this week and turned in a test alarm. It so happened that the company was notified the same day that the Cumberland would take out its instruments August 1, or demand a new contract with the city. The Home service had been adopted, but with the understanding that the change would be delayed until the Home was ready with its system. The notice of the Cumberland, fortunately, came at the right time, and the Home Company was not caught unprepared. The new system, the most complete of any town in Kentucky, is now in working order and after this week fire alarms can only be turned in over the Home 'phones. All that is necessary is to pull No. 5 on any instrument and press the button. That rings the alarm in every fireman's residence, at the police headquarters, fire department, 'Forbes' 'wild cat whistle' engine room and the central office. Central at once notifies all parties of the location of the fire.

The adoption of the Home service exclusively by the city for fire and police protection is a big triumph for the new company. It has issued a new list of 50 subscribers added since July 15, which will be found in today's Kentuckian. The city directory now contains about 550 subscribers, with new names being added every day.

Tammany in Line.

The members of the Democratic National Committee were the guests of Judge Parker at Rosemont Wednesday. Chas. F. Murphy and other prominent Tammany leaders were also present, arriving in advance of the committee. Mr. Murphy before leaving Rosemont spoke hopefully of Democratic success, and declared that New York City would give the national ticket the biggest majority ever known.

Summons Was Sudden.

Cornelia Moore, a much respected colored woman, died suddenly Monday night at her home on Walnut street. Death was due to congestion of the lungs. She was 62 years old and a member of the Methodist church. Deceased was a mother of Ned Turner who is connected with J. R. Hawkins in the grocery business.

NUGGET WORTH $200,000.

Finding of the "Welcome Stranger" by Four Men Dying from Exhaustion.

Could even fiction or East side melodramm suggest any situation more romantic?

Figure to yourself, as the French say, four men sinking down exhausted in the arid Australian bush, way back in the "Never-Never" country, where rain does not fall for years at a stretch, and the only plant that forces its way through the choking sand is the dreaded spinifex, or Australian spear grass, whose points pierce the pedestrian like a lance.

They sank down to die, relates the New York Herald. Their horses, too were exhausted, and one of these in stumbling struck its forefoot against a small piece of rock that projected a few inches out of the sandy soil.

The eyes of one of the men followed the stumble, and the next moment he had struggled to his feet, shouting: "Gold, gold!" Sure enough, the supposed "rock" struck by the iron-shod hoof glistened in the pitiless sun, and a moment later all four men were digging eagerly with bleeding fingers around the place.

Almost in less time than it takes to tell it these unfortunate fellows had unearthed the largest mass of virgin gold that the world has ever seen. This is known as the famous "Welcome Stranger" nugget. It is of the enormous weight of 10,000 ounces, and every ounce of it virgin gold, there being practically no alloy whatever. It is in the shape of a rough cross.

This marvelous find acted as a tonic upon the men and they were enabled to make their way to the nearest township, which claimed to be Ballarat. Here the "Welcome Stranger" was deposited in the bank, and after it was weighed down brought at the rate of $20 an ounce, so fine was the quality of the gold.

JAPAN IS REACTIONARY.

There Has Been of Late a Marked Reversion to Everything That Is Distinctively National.

People in America and England make a serious mistake in imagining Japan to be sitting modestly at the feet of western learning. Within the last decade there has been a decided reaction in Japan, writes Harold Bolce, in Booklover's Magazine. Foreigners in the employ of Japan are rapidly being dispensed with. Recent years have witnessed a widespread protest against the Romanization of the literature of the country. Roman characters on silver and copper coins have been replaced by ancient Mongolian ideographs. In the upper house of the imperial diet the introduction into the empire of the metric system was opposed, not long ago, on the ground that to admit the need of such an innovation would reflect discredit on the mathematical ability and commercial standards of the nation. There has been a marked reversion to the Japanese dress, a revival of Japanese games, a glorification of Japanese antiquities, and, still more significant, an outspoken conviction that while the west has mechanics and science to give to the east, there is little in its essential civilization that the Japanese want or would accept.

Indian Thieves.

Thieves are curiously classified in a native work published in India. The author divides the robbers into 37 grades, and minutely describes their operations under the most graphic names. Here are a few samples: "The dead child using thief," the "tiger growling imitating thief," the "dreadful strangling thief," the "inconsiderate and fearless thief," the "lamp light dimming and snake-producing thief," the "dreadful back-water pirate," the "gentle-like pucker," or the wonderful thought-speed traveling thief," the "pillow, portmanteau, bed, bundle and mattress thief," and the "reckless but remarkably tender-hearted and moral-dagger thief."—The Hour Glass.

"Not Said."

"Here lies—" carved the maker of tombstones and paused: "It's for the grave of a lawyer," quoth he, "let's let it go at that."—Houston Post.

Of Stenographers Fix Up a Plot to Enhance Their Value to Employers.

Vacation is the theme of general interest at present in the restaurants where stenographers "most do congregate." The following conversation was heard the other day, reports the New York Times, at a Broad street
"quick lunch":

"Said one fair pounder of the type to her vis-a-vis:

"I'm looking for a substitute who is absolutely worthless; do you know of a stenographer without a single redeeming quality?"

"Lots; but why?"

"Because," replied the first speaker, "if they get some one who is very rapid and industrious while I'm away it will get them into bad habits. I shall have to keep up with her pace when I get back, don't you see?"

"Well," said the other, "I think I know one who will suit you. You can't take more than 30 words a minute without getting rattled.
She's fierce."

"Send her up to-morrow, then, and tell her to ask for $15 a week."

"Why, she never got more than $5 a week in her life!" exclaimed the other girl.

"Maybe not, but it won't do for my people to know that they can get their work done for $5 a week.
And, by the way, Mr. Blank says he doesn't care how slow she is so long as she's accurate. No tell her to take him down in longhand if she gets rattled. He is so slow anyway you can draw a picture on every page while he's dictating."

And before they parted they had hatched up a conspiracy by means of which the "fierce" six dollar-a-week stenographer was to draw $15 a week for taking Mr.
Blank's dictation in longhand.

THE WAR ON FEVER GERMS.

Agencies of Science Are Ever at Variance Upon the Sanitary Question.

The discovery that most of the ills with which mankind is afflicted are germ diseases naturally tends to draw the agencies and resources of science into a united warfare upon bacteria of every description. With the doctor of medicine and student of sanitary science it is a continuous experiment with prophylactics and antisepsis, new and old. The question is, says the Chicago Record Herald, what will kill the germ without killing the person afflicted with it?

Because of the dangerous character of the disease caused by it, the typhus germ has come in for a larger share of the attention of scientists than any other disease-germ, with the possible exception of the diphtheria bacillus. As the germ is usually found in water and is taken into the body in this medium, scientific students have sought some method of treating the water in such a way as to destroy the germs without rendering it deleterious or unfit to drink. Lemon juice and grape juice have been recommended, and while it is claimed that they have been found to be efficacious they are not regarded by the medical profession as sure preventives of typhoid.

The Borden mixture has been used for years in spraying fruit trees. The discovery that it can be utilized in exterminating typhoid and other fever germs will be of wide interest to scientific men, and it is certain to lead to much experimentation in this direction.

Got Something New.

No since the early '80s, when the word "electric" leaped into fame with the arc light, the telephone, and the trolley car, has a newly-discovered term been so popular as radium and its derivatives. Already we have radio cigars, radite soap, radiumite tooth paste, and so on, just as there used to be electric soap, electric polish, electric tooth powder, electric cleaning material, and even electric silk.
The properties of the mysterious radium, of course, no more enter into the articles which bear that name, or names allied to it, than soap or silk polish or powder was electrified. Yet the new term, applied even to old and well known known articles, appeals to many people who don't bother to think what it may or may not mean.—Science.

"In Moscow," said Nathan Haskell Dine, the transactor of so story, "I saw a little child crying miserably one afternoon. He walked slowly down one of the principal streets, and his howl and gesture of despair brought a big crowd around him."

"What is the matter, my child?
What troubles you?" everyone asked.

"The boy pined for it. It looked at the multitude which he had assembled. Then, lifting up his voice he shouted in a shrill treble:

"I am lost. Will somebody please take me home to Ivan Trou-betsky, the champion clothier of the South end, who has just gotten in his new stock of spring overcoats, suits, neckties, shirts, hats and umbrellas, which he will sell

Cures Blood Poison, Cancers, Ulcers, Eczema, Carbuncles, Etc.
Medicine Free.

If you have offensive pimples or eruptions, ulcers on any part of the body, aching bones or joints, falling hair, mucous patches, swollen glands, skin itches and burns, sore lips or gums, eczema, festering sores, sharp, gnawing pains, then you suffer from serious blood poison or the beginnings of deadly cancer.
You may be permanently cured by taking Botanic Blood Dalm (B. B.) made especially to cure the worst blood and skin diseases. It kills the poison in the blood thereby giving a healthy blood supply to the affected parts. It is a every sore or ulcer, cancer, deadly cancer, it stops all aches and pains and reduces all swellings. Botanic Blood Dalm cures all malignant blood troubles such as eczema, scabs and scales, pimples, running sores, carbuncles, scrofula, etc. Especially advised for all obstinate cases that have reached the second or third stage. Druggists, $1.00. To prove it cures, sample of Blood Dalm sent free and prepaid by writing Blood Dalm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Describe trouble and free medical advice sent in sealed letter.

Scared to Death.

Dr. Francis W. McNamara, of Chicago, says: "Millions of people are made wretched every year or perhaps, have their lives shortened by feeling that they have heart disease. They have a pain in that region, and their own diagnosis is sufficient to convince them of the malady. As a matter of truth, there is seldom any pain from heart disease. The trouble is indigestion only. The stomach, lying just under the heart, is distended to a painful degree by gases, and crowding toward the heart, makes the pain seem to be in that organ."

His opinion simply confirms the claim of Dr. W. B. Caldwell, who originated the formula of Syrup Pepsin, the guaranteed cure for indigestion and constipation. All druggists sell it, but be sure to ask for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

LAST ANSWER

Of The Packers to The Striking Butchers

Chicago, July 28.—The offer of the State Board of Arbitration to bring about a settlement of the Chicago strike ended in failure when the final statement of the packers was received declaring that, as far as they were concerned, the original agreement was still in force, and that they were willing to abide by that agreement or continue their present course.

The packers also intimated the vacancies were being rapidly filled and that if the strikers cared to open the matter for arbitration under the old terms there was no time to be lost.

Tradewater Notes.

Tradewater, Ky., July 25.—Old Uacle Noah Orton died at his home on Sandlick Creek, three miles south of Clardy, last Monday. He was about 85 years old and had been in failing health for several years. But worn out with the cares of a long and somewhat checkered life he had been rapidly sinking for about a month, and his death Monday was by no means a surprise to his friends.

He came to this county from East Tennessee fourteen years ago and settled on the farm where he died.
He is survived by several grown children, all of whom have families except his son, Noah B., with whom he lived. He was a brother of the late Chas. Orton, who died at Macedonia several years ago, and of the late Susan Roberts, who lived near Empire, and a half brother of Esq. Jas. Orton, of near Clardy.

He had been a member of the Christian church from his early manhood and was a good citizen and a Christian gentleman. His remains were laid to rest at Castletyber church Tuesday.

The Pretty Summer Fabrics

THE fashion of piping, gauging and ruching is splendidly adapted to thin summer fabrics and more especially to muslins. Nothing was more uniquely than the serpentine of some few seasons ago in muslin. A great many people looked extremely well in these light draperies, but they certainly require to be arranged in more substantial material chiffon. The elbow sleeves are finished with ruckings and platings. This is to be worn with an enormous picture hat of leghorn, the only trimming on which will be a band of black velvet and two huge cabbage roses with their own foliage.

A touch of black will also be introduced in the parasol, which is of gauged black chiffon lined with palest pink.
Such a frock as this would be charming at London's big garden party.

A lovely example of the painted muslin gown is in pale pink, with a pompadour design of rings of deep red roses and foliage painted thereon. The frock appears to be cut all in one, and is gauged from several inches above the waist to about three inches below it.
The hip pieces are cut open and inserted with tiny tucks or box plaits, which give the necessary amount of fulness to the long skirt, which is finished with two enormously thick ruffles of taffeta changelante taking in various shades of pink and green. Some smaller ruffles of the same fabric are arranged over the yoke and shoulder to give a pelerine effect, and the elbow sleeves are finished with soft gaugings and frills, worn with long mousquetaire gloves. This is surmounted by a hat of white chip, with an inner brim of black straw, giving a beautiful morning gown in check VOILE STRAPPED WITH WHITE CANVAS.

than muslin. The effect as some of the big gatherings was not only deplorable, but often ludicrous.

Very different are our modes of today, and the quaint old delaines and patterned muslins are delightfully made up with pipings, ruckings and platings, the full gauged skirt hanging in graceful folds from waist to feet, the pouting bodice, the elbow sleeves and long shoulder, surmounted by the simple picture hat. Look, too, at the hundred-folded muslin little accessories you can add to your muslin frock!

I will tell you of some quaint and simple muslin gowns suitable for the debutante's wear. One is in cream, piped with blue ribbon, the skirt of which is gauged in at the waist and then inserted with plaited muslin edged on either side with tiny ruckings of blue bebe ribbon.
These insertions become fuller and wider as they near the feet, finishing at last in a mass of billowy frills; as the wearer lifts her frock one catches glimpses of a much-buffed and green-glazed petticoat. The bodice fastens at the back, and is adorned with a scroll pattern of plaited muslin edged with the bebe ribbon ruckings, above which a deep-rose shaped empiement of purest white dentelle irlandaise, lined only with brown chiffon voile, the underdress of which is cut on Princess, with a series of gaugings, fitting in, culotte fashion, to the figure, with a wide box plait right down the front. The gauging gives the necessary fulness and flow to the apparently simple skirt, and one of the newest effects is arrived at by the souve of brown taffeta, with orange and blue velvet straps. The sleeves, you will observe, reach only to the elbow (as is the case now with all the smartest Parisian toilettes), and are finished by gaugings of chiffon, and plisse frills of the same. This toilette is completed by an en tout cas of brown, with an orange and blue border. The hat, of brown chip, has a simple band of blue velvet and a coming shade to the face, and trimmed with a single white rose and narrow strings of black velvet hanging down at the back. The simplicity of this toilette is very striking and shows what lovely effects can be arrived at with hand-painted muslins.

ELLEN OMONDE.

Evening and Fete Gowns

ARIS—Taffeta changante and shaded chiffons are two very noticeable features of this season's fashions. Some of the embroideries are so lovely that it is not surprising that opera cloaks and evening dresses are especially charming this season. Many kinds of trimming are made of shaded panne and velvet leaves applies on to lace.

Sumptuous dressing is the order of the day, for we have veritably returned to the styles in vogue in the days of the French empire. We see how little the heart of woman has changed when it comes to a question of beautiful clothes as displayed in the leading ateliers of the Rue de la Paix. It seems to me that neither English, French nor American women are in the least considering the cost of their best frocks, by which I mean the toilette de reception and the evening gown. They do, however, affect a delightfully chic simplicity in the wearing of linens and white serge for the mornings, but their evening toilettes are really splendid creations.

I will tell you now of a simple evening gown worn of well-known debutante.

It is composed of white silk muslin, gauged in at the waist and then flares down the front by quaint little ruckings of white taffeta, a thicker rucking also appears at the feet, bordered by a narrow border of pearl trimming. The bebe bodice is trimmed with ruckings of silk, and the décolletage is outlined with the pearl trimming, which rests on the neck.

The sleeves are nothing more than a Victorian puff, and round the waist is a very wide sash of Roman blue satin.

There is, without doubt, a growing fancy for green in beautiful soft shades, and notably emeralds are gaining in favor, and we also see other curious green tones. Jewels are mostly in Louis XV. settings, varied by wonderful clear stones and every the specimens of Italian enamel. We Parisians are great admirers of Italian art; and many of the newest models of tea gowns are sufficiently creditable to this.

Enamel work is much used in parasol handles, some of which are very quaint and pretty. We are fastidious in trifles of this kind, and do not care for overelaborations. A handle of three wellblended enamels is an adequate finish to a plain colored parasol or en-tout-cas.

The sketch is of two pretty summer outdoor toilettes, suitable for fete or race occasions. A very notable composition is that on the right, composed of two pretty fete gowns.

Bright orange Paradis plume shading into yellows, browns and blues.

Most ethereal is the toilette worn by the lady on the left; this is suitable for a hot July day, being in palest blue sole-de-Chine, with insertions and filmy frounces of blonde lace edging the bodiced frills of sole-de-Chine. The bodice is finished with a wide band of sole-de-Chine, the sleeves being finished with great folded pieces of pale blue chiffon and touches of black velvet. This hat is of blue chip, veiled with blonde lace, and adorned with a huge cabbage rose and green foliage. Last, but not least, note the parasol, of pale blue chiffon silk, with deep puffings of shaded blue chiffon.

Restored to Good Health.

A woman born blind never appreciates the real loss of sight. A woman who has been an invalid all her life does not fully realize the loss she sustains. But a young woman in the very springtime of life who loses her health knows to the full her own deprivation.

Dreams of home and husband all vanish when the shadow of womanly ill-health falls across them. It is no wonder then that a woman is glad to praise Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription when it has been the means of restoring her to good health.

Thousands of women offer this tribute of praise to "Favorite Prescription," which has cured them of headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, etc., by curing the womanly diseases which cause these ailments,—irregularity, debilitating drains, inflammation, ulceration and female weakness.

"I have taken six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Miss M. F. Quinn, of Orlino, Simcoe Co., Ontario, "and two bottles of the 'Pleasant Laxative' as you advised for constipation of uterus, ovaries and weakness, and can safely say that your medicine has been the means of restoring me to good health again, which I had not had for over three years until taking your medicine. I thank you very much for kind and prompt attention to my letter asking advice."

Sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential.
Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The People's Common Sense Medical Advisor, paper covers, is

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

Y. P. C. A. Growth in Kentucky.

A re-union of the growth and development of the Young Men's Christian Association work in Kentucky for the past three years, under the supervision of the State Executive Committee, has been sent to the International Committee, and will appear in the Year Book of 1904. It contains the following information:

During the past three years the growth of the various departments of work in the State—city, railroad, student and county—has been notable, and has been especially characterized by a broader vision of the field to be occupied by each Association, and by a more systematic and aggressive occupancy of the fields in which work is being done. This period witnessed the Jubilee of the Association work in Kentucky, commemorating the semi-centennial of the organization of the first Association in the State, and of the quarter-centennial of the organization of the State work. 551 delegates attended the Jubilee Convention at Lexington, the largest Association Convention (State or International) ever held in the South.

There are now 74 Associations in the State. Two of these are city, seven railroad, twenty-seven student, and thirty town. Fifty-one secretaries are employed. Two assistants have been added to the secretarial force of the State Committee, which is as follows: State Secretary, Secretary City and Railroad Department, Secretary Religious and Educational Work Department, Secretary Student Department and two Secretaries of the County Work Department. With this report, the State Secretary, Mr. Henry B. Rowe, completes fifteen years of service in the State.

ACT QUICKLY.

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Hopkinsville.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this. Mrs. O. P. Lewis, wife of O. P. Lewis blacksmith and general repairer living at 508 N. Virginia St., says: "Acting upon the advice of friends I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Thomas & Trahern's drug store and tried them for kidney complaint from which I had been a constant sufferer for a long time past. My back had been in such condition that it was the greatest distress for me to stoop or lift anything but I had taken only a few doses of the pills when I felt greatly better. The kidneys were strengthened and the aching in my back relieved. My daughter Mrs. Wm. J. Tobin who complained a great deal of her back used Doan's Kidney Pills and was similarly benefited. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to others."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBurg Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

A German merchant ship was stopped and searched by a Russian warship in the Gulf of Finland.

Be Cheerful.

If you are troubled with constipation, indigestion and malaria, get a 50c or $1.00 bottle of Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup. It is guaranteed to cure you.

Walter B. Wallace, a railroad man, committed suicide in a hotel at Birmingham, Ala.

Fine Farm to be Sold. On August 15th, 1904, at 11 o'clock a. m., in front of the court house door, in Hopkinsville, Ky., I shall expose for sale at public outcry, to the highest and best bidder, the farm known as the "Old John Ferguson place," belonging to the estate of the late Martha Ferguson.

Said farm contains 277 acres, is situated on a mile south of Herndon, Ky., on the Dover road, is well fenced with wire, excellently watered, would make fine stock farm; 60 acres in timber; buildings in good repair, consisting of 2-story 6-room house, two cabins, new stable, and good barn.

Terms of Sale—One-third cash, balance on ample time.

CITRON LONG, Att'y.

A Righteous Pardon.

Nancy May, a young Kentucky woman, was recently sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary for killing her husband's paramour. The crime was committed when she was a girl, and from a form of insanity incident to pregnancy. A pardon was at once asked for her every juror, every officer of the court and all the best citizens of her county joined in the request. In granting the pardon acting Governor Thorne said:

"There is a certain sentiment in Kentucky called unwritten law which has prevailed in many cases under my observation as a practicing lawyer, when men have been acquitted by Judges and juries in similar cases to this, which were met with applause. But in this case when a poor, frail little woman committed this crime, a jury gave her ten years, and sends her and her babies to the penitentiary. In such a case the jury should have acquitted her instead of convicting her and throwing the responsibilities upon the executive. As it is, I might, under certain conditions allow this woman to go to prison to suffer for the great crime she has committed. But to send these babies to the penitentiary or separate them from their mother and incarcerate her for ten years, I haven't the heart to do. She is pardoned with the injunction, Go and sin no more."

"Equality before the law" is what the Kentucky Equal Rights Association is trying to obtain for women. The application to this poor woman's case of that unwritten law which has shielded so many men is an act that entitles Governor Thorne to the respect and gratitude of every lover of fair play.

The State College of Kentucky, LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College of Kentucky) offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, horticultural, chemical, biological, mathematical, physical, general, classical, mechanical engineering, electrical engineering, civil engineering, mining engineering, each of which extends over four years and includes a degree. Each course of study is organized under faculty general. The faculty number nearly fifty professors and instructors. County appointees receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and light, and if they remain traveling expenses.

The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern. The State College of Kentucky is a college house for young women and young men for drill hall and gymnasium for men. Both buildings are completed and in use. Military tactics and science are fully provided for as required by Congress.

Graduate from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely increased by the ability of the college to supply. Last year the matriculation was 750.

Specialists as the necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of natural science. Summer schools are provided for pedagogy, engineering and instruction in science.

The State College of Kentucky, through learning habits, scientific culture, is the only institution in the Commonwealth doing in any proper sense university work.

The completion of buildings here for young women provides facilities for good, broad and lodging. It is heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

An opportunity is thus afforded to them of a thorough education in classics, modern languages, literature, science, mathematics, logic, metaphysics, history and political economy. No other institution in the State offers advantages for education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky.

NO COMPETITION.

There is no competition in mining, everyone has the same opportunity, and courage to grasp it is indispensable to success.

Mining stock is the safest investment today, because it is not subject to a variable market. The product of mines has a standard price the world over, and a market that cannot be glutted.

Dividends of banks and railroads are affected by the prosperity of a country or a corresponding depression.

But through good times and bad times alike a mine keeps on mining, milling and refining.

The time to buy mining stock and get the largest return for the investment, is when the company is selling its first issue of treasury stock. That stock will surely increase in value as development work proceeds; and it is an easy matter to point to hundreds of companies engaged in active mining operations, to own $1,000 of whose stock would mean a regular income of no small amount. It was in buying shares at a low price, in from-time times, that many of the world's wealthiest men made their millions.

DIVIDENDS OF MINING COMPANIES COMPARED WITH BANKS.
The greater part of the great fortunes in this country were started from investments in mines, and in this connection some figures printed in the National Banker, under date of August 25, 1903, are interesting:

From the time of discovery to 1903, the United States has produced $2,500,000,000 in gold, Mexico at least $181,000,000 and probably twice as much, and British North America $142,000,000.

The dividends paid by gold and silver mines are greater than the dividends paid by all the banks in this country, and the dividends paid by copper mines are greater than the dividends in the country.

There certainly are good gold and silver mines yet in the country, and the new cyanide process for treating low-grade ores has made it possible to treat gold and silver ore which was formerly passed over as worthless, at a good profit.

In summing up the situation we believe that if an investor is reasonably sure that the people connected with a mining company are honest, that the money invested will be used for the purpose specified, and that the management will be conservative, he may feel that he has a reasonable chance to get a good return on his investment.

MINING INVESTMENTS PROFITABLE

Less money is lost proportionately in mining, says Cecil Rhodes than in any other business in the world, and larger fortunes are made in investments of mining stocks than in any investment on earth.

good mining stock will pay the investor more easily 20, 30, 40 and 100 per cent. annually than municipal bonds, railroad bonds and stock or government bonds can possibly pay 5 per cent. Money invested in a good mining stock is safer than in a bank, than in mortgages, railroad securities, municipal or government bonds.

The security of good mining stock is the raw material of money itself; it is the "staff" at whose feet governments, cities, banks, railroads, mortgages, land corporations and all forms of business kneel.

These are remarkably strong words, and yet we believe they are true. Of course, many people will assert that mining is a failure; that for every dollar taken out of the ground two dollars have been put back. All of which, however, we most respectfully deny. Imprecious metal mining did not yield results no one would engage in it. And, further than that, its rewards must be extraordinary rich, because men are willing to take large chances, assume hazardous risks in order to secure them. There are more mining kings than railroad kings. While mining has made millionaires and multi-millionaires, it has also produced a class of thrifty, independent men whose fortunes might not be counted much in comparison with the Clarks and others, but who are, nevertheless, the very best evidence of the profit in mining.

VALUABLE INFORMATION
"As the masses become more educated and in conversant with the laws which govern trade, and in-dependant class, if not actually among the wealthy class. Why is this? Because the investor has done with his money what the banker does with the depositor's—placed it where it would earn the most money in the shortest time. There are bankers in every state who have invested heavily in mining, but who would pooh pooh the idea of similar investment if consulted by one of their depositors. There is food for serious thought here.

"But the people are thinking, and the more they think about investments of a safe and profitable nature the more money enters into the business of mining.

"It is no longer tenable to assert that mining is a gamble. Real mining is a safer business than any other we can think of, and is certainly more profitable. Men who have made their millions from mining investments are scattered all over the land and are living evidences of that fact."

WONDERFUL TRANSFORMATION.
Taking into consideration the enormous capital invested, the number of people employed and the immediate returns in money and profit, mining for the precious metals is the leading industry. The record of results has been that of steady increase from the first discovery of 1859 to the present day. But fact and figures representing merely the annual increases of production, eloquent and definite as they are, do not convey an adequate idea of the importance of the industry under the new conditions into which it has grown. The past five years has witnessed a wonderful transformation, and progress has been made by leaps and bounds. A detailed statement of the results of operations in the forty-five mining counties of the State, and a history of the several great mining campaigns the time when the miner turned his efforts from the bonanzas of silver to the richer fields of gold. But this enchanting and fascinating subject would fill an entire volume.

When Visiting the World's Fair, Ride on the Ferris Wheel.

The great Expositions held during the last fifteen years have produced two marvelous examples of engineering and constructing ability. One of these, the Eiffel Tower, was designed and built by a Frenchman at Paris for the exposition of 1889; the other, the Ferris wheel, was designed and built by the late Geo. W. G. Ferris for the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago, in 1893.

Paris again held a great exposition in 1900, but failed to produce any feature to take the place of the Eiffel Tower. In America, St. Louis, in 1904, planned and produced the greatest exposition the world has ever seen. Scores of attempts were made to invent something more wonderful and more attractive than the Ferris Wheel, but as Paris failed to outdo her Eiffel Tower, so did St. Louis fail to equal her famed Ferris Wheel of the World's Columbian Exposition of 1893.

The problem of moving the Ferris Wheel from Chicago to St. Louis was stupendous—4,200 tons of material, including the 70-ton axle, besides engines, boilers and derricks and falsework, had to be transported. One hundred and fifty-five freight cars were required to move this material.

A brief resume of the dimensions and description of the Ferris Wheel may be interesting. The wheel is built upon the bicycle principle, with immense tension spokes 215-16 inches in diameter. The wheel is 250 feet in diameter and stands 264 feet high. In reality it is two wheels securely braced together. Between the outer rims of these wheels the 11-ton cars are suspended on 6 1/2 inch pins, 6 feet long. These cars are 13 feet long, 9 feet high, and will carry 60 persons each. There are 36 of them, so the total capacity of the wheel is 2,160 persons. At several times in its history the wheel has been filled to its capacity. The axle of the wheel is a solid steel forging, 32 inches in diameter and 45 feet long. The solid bronze bearings upon which it rests are each 6 feet long and contain nearly two tons of metal. The weight of the wheel is carried upon two four post wheels, 6 feet square on top and 40x50 feet at the base. These in turn rest upon a solid concrete and steel beam which is carried down to solid rock, 26 feet below the surface of the ground.

The wheels are anchored to the bottom of this mass of concrete by 260 iron cables, so that the wheel is perfectly safe, even in the most violent storms. The side vibration of the wheel is an 80 mile an hour wind is less than half an inch. The wheel is run by a double reversing engine with cylinders 30x48 in., capable of developing 2,000 horse power. The power is applied through a series of cogs to a sprocket chain which engages wide cogs on the outside of each rim.

Two revolutions are given each passenger, and the time required is from 20 to 30 minutes. The view during this half-hour ride is most interesting and instructive. Occasionally, as the majestic and mighty wheel rolls one up higher and higher, a grand panorama unfolds itself to view. A fifty million dollar Exposition in all its grandeur is before you. The location of the wheel in the center of the fair grounds offers one opportunity to thoroughly familiarize themselves with the lay of the grounds and get a better general idea of the fair than they could by days of tramping. The Cascades, the Plaines d'Etat, all the big buildings, the Pike, Foreign Hall, the Art Building, Foreign Buildings, Philippine Exposition, the Air Ship Expo, are sure, in fact, every point of interest in the grounds can be seen from the big wheel. In addition, one gets a full view of the great Mississippi River, and the beautiful forests, hills and dales for fifty miles around. At night, the view of the city and the surrounding buildings and grounds is simply magnificent. Eye has not seen nor ear heard of a more striking spectacle than the night view of the great exposition from the top of the Ferris Wheel.

Hundreds of thousands of incandescent lights bring the outlines of all the buildings to bold relief. The Festival Hall and the Placeau d'Etat are flooded in turn with white, red and green lights, making a striking and very beautiful effect. The best point to view the fair illumination is from the Ferris Wheel.

When you come to the fair, do not fail to ride upon it.

We wish to announce to you that we now have the life alarm system completed, and ready for your use and protection.

The original plan of this system was conceived by the late Mr. Geo. E. Randle, with the idea in mind that if it could possibly be arranged, it would make a perfect fire alarm service. We immedately set to work and perfected his plans until we are pleased to after going to the heavy extra expense of installing same, we are able to furnish our patrons with the most modern fire alarm system to-day. In fact it is the only system of its kind in the States.

When you pull down number 5 and push the button, you immediately Central Fire Headquarters, Fire Chief and Forbes' Engine by the throwing of a little switch at Central also notify every residence, causing each and every interested party to get the location of the fire without a moment's delay.

We also wish to announce that in addition to the perfect fire system furnished our patrons, that we also have the contract for issuing the Police service and have their phones all placed and working order. This gives each and every one of our patrons a fire and police protection, which is in itself worth the five cents that you pay us for your residence phone.
